AFTERLIFE OF EVENTS

BLACK QUANTUM FUTURISM

We applied the Black Quantum Futurism gaze to study the afterlife of events and astrological influences surrounding the birth, arrest, and death of Sandra Bland in order to synchronize the influences playing a role in Black woman genocide. We believe that astrological events are reversed and act retro-causally from the cosmic future to influence present events that will be subsequently written on the fabric of the past by light. "When we realize the heavens are engaged in backwards causation - that circumstances are all the time being shaped by the pull of the future - we can begin to see what destiny means, astrologically."
